9  Council of International Students Australia (CISA)
The International Officer spoke to this item. She explained the role of CISA and its critical role for international students in Australia. She explained what had occurred last year and the motions of the 28th September, 2012, Council meeting.

The President added that SUPRA Council agreed to an initial payment of $7,500. We viewed that as an affiliation fee, but we never received an invoice for that payment in 2012. In late January, 2013, we received an invoice, but it was labelled as conference support. That has now been clarified. We now have the capacity to pay affiliation to CISA, or pay to be a Sponsor of the conference, or do both.

The Vice President (Policy) said that it would be fantastic for SUPRA to support the CISA conference. She declared conflict of interest as a CISA office-bearer.

The International Officer said the interim SUPRA budget has allowed for a payment of $7,500.

The Secretary asked how much the conference costs all up. The Vice President (Policy) responded that she wasn’t sure of the exact figure, but it is a huge expense: 300 delegates, 4 days, including a gala night, etc.

One councillor asked what the problem was with just paying the $7,500. The President responded that we cannot pay money approved for the 2012 budget in 2013, without a new motion of Council.

Motion [APR13-03]: That SUPRA Council approves $7,500 payable to CISA as annual affiliation, as agreed last year in September.
Moved: Tuba Omer    Seconded: Siva Purushothuman    Consensus.

Motion [APR13-04]: That SUPRA Council approves $7,500 payable to CISA as 2013 conference sponsorship.
Moved: Siva Purushothuman   Seconded: Thomas Munro   Carried (11 for, 1 against, 4 abstentions).

Margaret Kirkby noted that she is very critical of what this university does in relation to international students, but it is worth keeping in mind the controversial history of international student organisations in Australia, particularly in the AUS (predecessor to the National Union of Students).

The International Officer said that the people who run CISA now have condemned the activities of some within the precursor organisation. The Vice President (Community) noted that in any student organisation, there is a risk of accountability.

Motion [APR13-05]: That SUPRA Council requests budget documents for 2012 and 2013 from CISA, for the $7,500 amounts.
Moved: Alice Brandli    Seconded: Nicole Doughty    Consensus.
